Membership Application Form

Langley Environmental Partners Society (LEPS) is a partnership organization dedicated to protecting and restoring the natural environment through education, co-operation, and action.

LEPS is a non-political organization whose members believe that environmental problems are best solved by working cooperatively with landowners, government, and community groups.

LEPS welcomes new members (individuals/students/educational institutions/government) who support the goal of creating cooperative environmentally oriented partnerships with all interested parties. All members are expected to uphold the LEPS constitution and comply with the bylaws of the society. Annual membership fee is $25.00.
